Copenhagen, October 3. The Pregnancy of her Daniſh Majeſty (who continues perfectly well) has been declared, and Orders iſſued for praying for her in all the Churches throughout theſe Dominions.

The Mortality amongſt the Horned Cattle has reached Iceland, where it now rages very much.

Stockholm, October 6. The King and Queen of Sweden are ſtill at Swartſio; and the greateſt Part of the Senators are at their Country Houſes, enjoying the laſt three Weeks of the Vacation.

Florence, October 6. The Great Duke and Dutcheſs have now fixed their Reſidence for the Winter in the Palace in Town, where all the Diſpoſitions have been made for the Reception of the Emperor and Queen of Naples, whoſe Suite is ſo great, that Apartments in four large Convents, as well as many others in private Houſes, have been appropriated for them.

Count Kaunitz arrived here two Days ago from Vienna, and ſet out for Naples this Morning.

Dreſden, October 10. The Court remains ſtill at Leipzig in good Health. The Day of their Return to this Place is fixed for the 19th Inſtant.

Berlin, October 10. Laſt Sunday Morning His Pruſſian Majeſty ſent the Order of the Black Eagle of Pruſſia, together with a very fine Diamond Star, &c. to his Serene Highneſs the Prince of Orange, which he has wore ever ſince; and in the Evening the Marriage of her Royal Highneſs the Princeſs Frederica-Sophia-Wilhelmina, mina of Pruſſia with that Prince, was ſolemnized in the Palace here, when the Nuptial Benediction was given by the Reverend Mr. Sack, Firſt Chaplain to the King of Pruſſia. The Nobility and Foreign Miniſters were invited on this Occaſion; and there was a very ſplendid Supper at Seven different Tables Every Day ſince has been diſtinguiſhed by ſome Public Entertainment, ſuch as Balls, Operas, Plays, &c. all which have been conducted with great Order and Magnificence: But the moſt noble Sight was a Manœuvre, executed Yeſterday Morning by the Troops in Garriſon here. They attacked the Village of Tempelhof (diſtant about an Engliſh Mile from this Capital) which was bravely defended by two Companies of Grenadiers and three Squadrons of Huſſars; who, after having twice repulſed the Attack, were at laſt forced to abandon the Village, of which the victorious Troops took Poſſeſſion; but, upon the ſuppoſed Approach of the Enemy's Army, they were, in their Turn, obliged immediately to quit it and to retire. The Intention of the Whole was to ſhew the Manner of attacking and retreating, which was performed with the greateſt Dexterity and Addreſs, and afforded the higheſt Satisfaction and Amuſement to his moſt Serene Highneſs the Prince Stadtholder.

Laſt Night Prince Henry, the King of Pruſſia's Brother, gave a moſt magnificent Supper and Ball, at his Palace, to the Prince and Princeſs of Orange, who, it is ſaid, are to leave this Place on Monday next; and, after ſtopping one Day at Potzdam, will proceed directly to Holland.

Hague, October 13. The Prince Stadtholder having notified in Form the Completion of his Marriage with the Princeſs Wilhelmina of Pruſſia, to the different Colleges of the Government reſiding here, that agreeable Event was Yeſterday made known to the Town by the Firing of Cannon, diſplaying of Flags, and by other Demonſtrations of Joy; and Prince Lewis of Brunſwick gave an Entertainment upon the Occaſion to a great Number of the principal Perſons of the Country. Their Serene and Royal Highneſſes the Prince and Princeſs of Orange were to leave Berlin Yeſterday; and as they will reſt at Potzdam, Brunſwick, Loo, and Soeſdyck, in their Way Home, they are not expected at the Houſe in the Wood before the 3d of November, when the Rejoicings here will begin again. The States of Frieſeland have ſet the Example to the other Provinces, by Voting an Annuity to the Princeſs of Orange; and it is probable that other Preſents will be made by other Provinces, to ſhew their Satisfaction upon this Occaſion.

Fontainebleau, October 14. Laſt Sunday this Court went into Mourning for Eleven Days for his late Royal Highneſs the Duke of York.

Hague, October 20. The Prince and Princeſs of Orange arrived at Brunſwick on the 16th of this Month, and were accompanied by the Prince and Princeſs of Pruſſia ſo far on their Journey; we don't yet know for certain when they will leave that place, but imagine it will be To-day or To-morrow; ſo that every thing is preparing for their Arrival at Loo on Monday or Tueſday next. Other Provinces are following the Example of Frieſeland, in voting Preſents to the Princeſs of Orange.

The Foot Forces in Garriſon lined the Streets, and his Excellency (attended by a Squadron of Horſe) proceeded in the uſual State to the Council-Chamber in the Caſtle, where his Commiſſion was read, and the Oaths adminiſtered to him; and thereupon his Excellency having received the Sword from the Lords Juſtices, the Great Guns in His Majeſty's Park the Phœnix were fired, and anſwered by Vollies from the Regiments on Duty, which were drawn out on College-Green: His Excellency then repaired to the Preſence Chamber, where he received the Compliments of the Nobility and other Perſons of Diſtinction, upon his ſafe Arrival, to take upon him the Government of this Kingdom.
